

A HIDDEN PEARL

Château De Raay is a unique, fully restored castle hotel where luxury, ambiance and art occupy centre stage. The 13 hectare country estate has since 1236 been occupied by nobility. From 1937 to 1999 this beautiful country estate served as a convent for nuns.

Welcome to Château De Raay

The 50 hotel rooms, which have been renovated to the highest standard, are full of character. They are furnished with beautiful art provided by the artistic contributions of Art Centre de Raay. The spacious bathrooms are extremely stylish for hotel standards... A number of rooms have even been designed and finished in detail by renowned artists.

Being located in a country estate, the hotel benefits from an idyllic location. With a long drive, its private woods, ponds, beautiful terraces and gardens with exceptional garden art, you immediately get a sense of grandeur.

The Orangery of Chateau de Raay houses Art Center de Raay which provides an inspiring meeting place for the art and business world and for anyone who would like to enjoy art in a beautiful environment.

Apart from viewing, enjoying and buying art, it is also possible to indulge your artistic urges together with friends, family or as a business outing in the form of workshops.

Fresh inspiration is important and your surroundings can provide a helping hand. Holding your meetings at Sandton Château de Raay is just that little bit different! Release the creativity in one of the tastefully designed meeting rooms and a stroll in the private wood will certainly inspire you during that meeting break...

And after a wonderful bike ride or walk through the breathtaking landscape of Peel & Maas, enjoy the sun and a lovely glass of wine, a bite to eat or a fine dinner on the fully sheltered terrace overlooking the pond. Or try the exquisite food, Limburg's cuisine at its best in the fine restaurant, where chef Dylan van Hirtum wields his sceptre at the highest level over his international kitchen. On request, his magnificent kitchen offers special dinners and cooking evenings at the Chef's Table.
