

BBT Online's Bucket List – Jana Van Samang (21), Project Leader Meeting Management

BCD Meetings & Events

Since I've only just started working and have my whole life ahead of me, there are lots of things I would still like to do. It wasn't simple to make a top five out of them, but here it is.

1. I would very much like to learn how to dive. As a child I was already fascinated by aquariums and as a teenager I had several turtles. Swimming with sea turtles and dolphins or finding Nemos in their natural habitat sounds like a fantastic experience.
2. Speaking Spanish fluently is high on the list. I had Spanish during my studies and I fell completely in love with the language. I stayed in Valencia for two weeks to improve my language, but I can't speak it fluently yet.
3. Iceland is the top country on my travel list. To bathe in the Blue Lagoon, to marvel at the beautiful nature of the national parks or the special architecture of the Hallgrímskirkja. To watch the geysers erupt or to sleep under the northern lights: it would be a dream.
4. Quokkas are the cutest animals in Australia. They always seem to be smiling, but apparently making a selfie with them is not that easy after all. Challenge accepted!
5. One day when I am older, I would like to open a little boutique hotel in Spain – this is also part of my plan of speaking perfect Spanish. I'll have to win the lottery first to make this dream possible though.
